AGREED ON A PROTOCOL.
Statement Made by Secretary Day After a Conference with the French Ambassador.
ALL PERSIFLAGE SENT TO THE REAR.
The terms are precisely those laid down by the President in his Note Replying to Spain's Original Overture—Believed that Only a Few Formalities Remain to be Disposed of.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Secretary Day, at 1 p. m., made the following statement:
"We have agreed upon a protocol embodying the proposed terms for the negotiation of a treaty of peace, including the evacuation of Porto Rico, and it is expected that the protocol will be executed."
It can be stated that the terms are precisely those laid down by the president in his original note about a week ago.
It is believed that nothing but a few formalities remain to be disposed of to secure the signature of the protocol.
Agreement Reached by Logistical Steps.
The statement by Secretary Day showed that events had led up by logical steps to the agreement reached some time after noon on the terms of the protocol. The conference between the president and the French ambassador at the White House Tuesday evening, it is practically admitted, was not conclusive in all respects, but there was a manifestation of the administration's confidence in Administration.
That seemed to presage an early agreement upon the basis of a peace. Foundation for this belief was afforded when Ambassador Cambon called at the state department during the forenoon, and it became known that the ambassador was prepared to give a response to further inquiries that had been necessarily put Tuesday night.
In Relation to the Spanish Position.
Although no definite statement could be obtained from anyone acquainted with the details of the situation, it was surmised that the ambassador, having presented certain Spanish requests in connection with the acceptance of the four bases of peace laid down by the president, had been authorized to modify or withdraw such of these additional representations as should prove unacceptable to the United States.
At any rate, when the ambassador appeared at the state department at 11 a. m., and with his secretary, M. Thibaut, was ushered into the diplomatic room, there was a general belief among the officials of the state department that the prospect had brightened materially over night, and that a cessation of hostilities at least was in sight.
A Close Conference with Secretary Day.
The ambassador was in close conference with Secretary Day for 15 minutes, and the secretary leaving the ambassador behind the closed doors of the diplomatic room repaired to the White House, where he was met by the president. This gave rise to the conjecture that Ambassador Cambon had submitted additional points to those previously presented upon which The President's Decision Was Essential.
On the other hand, with knowledge of a further conference between the president and the ambassador was unnecessary, the indications pointed more clearly to the simple adjustment of minor details, as the occasion for the secretary's visit to the White House. For instance, it may have been necessary for him to secure credentials from the president, or order to secure the authority
To Sign for the United States Any Proclamation or memorandum that will serve as a basis for the cessation of hostilities and the beginning of the work of the peace commission.
As far as can be gathered, our government is not particularly concerned at the insistence of the Spanish government upon the reference of the peace agreement to its present stage to the courts. Our government, in dealing with another Government Only the Executive Branch.
and holds that wholly responsible for all of its acts or promises, and it is probable that our government would not concern itself as to what further internal steps would be necessary to carry out the agreement, but that it is probable that the executive branch of the government in Spain need give us any further concern.
As Understood at the White House.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—At the White House it was understood that Ambassador Cambon would transmit to Spain a cablegram stating that a complete and immediate acceptance of the terms imposed, without reservation, would be essential to effecting peace under the present terms offered by the United States. In this connection, it has been developed that the Spanish answer was delivered late Tuesday, President McKinley announced that an extra session of the senate would be held doubtless in November.
With the peace situation at a stage where a complete agreement is regarded as likely at any moment, discussion has again started as to the convoking of an extra session of congress, but President McKinley, within the past 24 hours, has said positively that he had no intention of calling the senate together, though of course the senate will have to meet in extra session to ratify the treaty of peace, unless unforeseen and most improbable delays should occur. The president added that the preliminary details incident to a treaty of peace would take so much time that the senate would not have to meet until some time in November.

London Press Comment.
LONDON, Aug. 10.—The afternoon papers comment upon the battle of Malate as being a repetition of the now familiar story: "The Spaniards, brave and incompetent, firing wildly and tackling too late; the Americans, brave, cool and skillful, notwithstanding that their operations were conducted in the midst of a tropical monsoon."

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—Mrs. Matilda B. Carver, president of the board of temple trustees of the Woman's Temple of Chicago, in referring to the action taken at a recent meeting of the executive committee of the National W. C. T. U., said:
"The recommendation of the committee that the local W. C. T. The temple trustees are an incorporated and independent body, and have not the slightest idea of abandoning the project of making the temple Miss Willard's memorial. Miss Willard's last words on her deathbed in regard to the temple were: 'Oh, if I could be of help. Oh, how soon I would help me. Oh, how I would like to see the temple.
